

ALLEGRO 80

ALLEGRO 80 is a premium, fun and exciting new Cover Band, with a repertoire list that spans from Bruno Mars to Kool & The Gang to Toto to Whitney Houston and more!

The term Allegro has an Italian origin and can be directly defined as “Lively” which is a perfect description of the band. The musical definition of Allegro is “performed at a brisk speed” which is also apt, as the band brings the energy with some great uptempo hit songs, and the entire team focuses on the service of the entertainment business.

With performance delivery and the constant fine-tuning of understanding each new audience at the forefront of the band’s focus, Allegro 80 consists of 3 premier vocalists i.e TYE PLATINUM, LEA HEART AND CLINT BRINK.

(Did we mention that the 80 is representative of them all being 80’s kids?)

Top 40? Old School? Motown? Swing? Duets? We’ve got it all. Perfect for that time of your event that you want your group on the dance floor (after a long evening of speeches) or just as suitable for the first dance at your wedding (eek!), and even great as a live and palatable soundtrack over that amazing dinner you’ll be having (at your year-end soiree). Let’s meet the squad...

CLINT

Crooner Clint Brink was born and bred in Mitchells Plain, Cape Town and has been singing since the age of 13. His soulful velvet voice has pulled the heartstrings of audiences across Cape Town. It's his high pitched baritone that sets him apart from the rest.

Clint has performed on stages such as big as Grand Arena and as intimate as Jackson Hall. He is influenced and inspired by musicians such as Adele, Ray Charles and Eric Clapton and comes from a musical family. His father Ibrahim Khalil Shihab (formerly Chris Schilder) is legendary Cape Town composer and jazz pianist and former member of Cape Flats jazz-rock band, Pacific Express.
